

LIND GOES TO MEXICO CITY

Secret as to Errand—Mexico City Excited Over Portent of Envoy's Return

BELIEVED HE BEARS PLAN FOR HUERTA RETIREMENT

Wilson's Cabinet Hears Report of Strength of Mexican Constitutionalists

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7.—Provisional President Huerta decided at a cabinet meeting last night to reject President Wilson's demand for his retirement, according to a supposed authentic report.

It is said he will contend that America has no right to make a request that he has no right to grant. It is rumored that he plans to increase his army to half a million.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal emissary, with Captain Burnside, attaché of the American embassy, arrived here today from Vera Cruz. Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy was called to Lind's hotel immediately. Neither would discuss their conversation. Up to a late hour Lind had not visited any Mexican officials nor received an official visit.

It is generally believed in diplomatic circles that Lind bears a plan whereby Huerta may gracefully retire from the presidency.

Lind's return to Mexico City was unexpected here, and few knew of his coming. The news of his return, printed in the morning papers, caused varied emotions. Lind posed for photographs at his hotel, but refused pertinent interviews.

LIND ACTING ON HIS OWN DISCRETION IN RETURN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—It is understood here that John Lind's return to Mexico City was without specific order from Washington. He has been under instructions to use discretion as to his course. The administration is silent regarding the significance of his move. It is pointed out that he may have acted upon private information that portentous events were pending there.

One report is that O'Shaughnessy learned that President Huerta is preparing his final answer to President Wilson's demands, and that the American consul wants to consult Lind before accepting the draft for transmission to the United States.

RAISE EMBARGO SAYS SENATOR CUMMINS

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.—The situation in Mexico is a serious and a difficult one, said Senator Cummins here today. "My personal view is that we should not interfere unless forced to do so by the proposed intervention of another country. We ought not to let any other nation enter Mexico to settle the difficulties there. Permanent peace is not obtainable through the imposition of outside force."

The Senator declared the loss of life and property in Mexico that has already occurred are "subordinate to the great good to be accomplished," he said.

"Our sober second thought should be to raise the embargo on arms and ammunition and permit the Mexicans to settle their own difficulties in a fair fight."

VARSITIES PREPARE FOR YEARLY GAME ON STANFORD'S FIELD

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 7.—Fair weather is predicted for the California-Stanford annual game tomorrow. Tickets are selling at a premium and even the scalpers have but few. Hundreds are arriving here hourly. The Stanford team is in excellent condition and the students are confident.

The Cardinals spent the day in the hills behind the campus. They planned to remain in a farm house to night to avoid the campus, which probably will be filled with howling crowds all night.

Coach Brown refused to make predictions for the game except to say that the team will fight to the end, and that it is in prime condition despite usual reports of injuries emanating yearly from Stanford. The rumors that Reeves, wing three quarters, is suffering from a bad ankle have been quieted, as Reeves is in excellent condition.

Referee Hill, brought from Australia for this game, will remain in San Francisco tonight, arriving here Monday. He has already interviewed the coaches and captains, who understand his interpretations and the rules that he will not explain personally to the teams.

The field is covered with three feet of straw to prevent soaking in the event of rain. The Cardinals are believed to have a better chance on a dry field, although a trifle heavier

POISON FEARED IN WOUND OF DIAZ

Reported Knife With Which General Was Struck Was Dipped in Poison

PHYSICIANS WATCH FOR SYMPTOMS OF TROUBLE

Three Mexicans Arrested; Mendel Guerrero, One of Attackers, Wounded

HAVANA, Nov. 7.—Surgeons are watching closely for signs of poison in the wounds a would-be assassin inflicted on Gen. Felix Diaz with a knife last night. Reports were spread that the knife was dipped in poison, although no symptoms of poisoning have yet developed. The doctors say the cut is not deep and they expect an early recovery.

The assailant is still at large.

Three Mexicans were arrested while the police were searching for two of the quintette that attacked Diaz. Guerrero Mendez, one of the party, was shot in the leg.

Diaz, with some friends, was chatting on a park bench, when his assailants rushed from the rear. Diaz was unable to draw his revolver but fought with a rolled umbrella. His friends wielded the park bench.

The attack on Diaz occurred while he was walking on the Malecon, a fashionable promenade. He was wounded behind the ear and in the neck, besides receiving several blows on the head from a cane. Diaz was removed to a hospital.

Gen. Felix Diaz escaped from Mexican soil on October 27, taking refuge on board the United States gunboat Wheeling at Vera Cruz. He was transferred to the Louisiana, and from there to the battleship Michigan, later being put aboard the steamer Esperanza, which reached Havana on Monday last.

Felix Diaz was technically arrested on the charge of shooting Pedro Guerrero, his alleged assailant. It is said the weapon he used was handed him by a friend. Guerrero may die. Diaz is rapidly recovering.

GOOD ROADS CONTRACT

Withers & Crites Low Bidder on Job With Over Nine Miles of Paving

THREE SECTIONS INCLUDED IN IT

Before First of Year County Will Have Forty Miles Under Way

When the Board of Supervisors meets again it will let its sixth good roads contract under the $1,270,000 bond issue. Bids for the sixth job were received on Tuesday, and according to the figures of the County Highway Commission the work will be done by Withers & Crites of Los Angeles. The figures named for the various items brings Withers & Crites' bid to $37,652.84. Other bids were: George S. Benson & Sons, $42,211.16; Roger Bros., $44,728.55.

Withers & Crites already has one good roads contract, that for the section of paved road between Orange and Olive. The Benson firm has the Tustin-Orange road contract, and Roger Bros. has No. 2 on the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach road.

For some reason there were but four bids received for the sixth job, which comprises over nine miles of road. Possibly the job was too big for some of the contractors who figure on some of the shorter roads. Of the four bids received one was thrown out because it was not accompanied by a check.

The job that will be awarded to Withers & Crites comprises three sections. One section lies between Anaheim city limits and Placentia avenue on the Anaheim-Olive road. The other is the road between that point and Olinda, and the third is between Fullerton and Placentia. The road will have a concrete base and a surface of rock and oil.

CURRENCY WAR IS WAXING LIVELY

Committee Backing Down on Reserve Bank Plan It Had Proposed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Wilson today won the first round in the battle with the senate currency committee, when it reconsidered the proposition limiting the reserve banks to four and is now considering a plan for seven. A victory for the president is predicted.

The change in the number of reserve banks came when Senators Reed and O'Gorman voted for the reconsideration, despite their earlier adverse vote. Wilson's friends take this to indicate that the opposition is crumbling.

COMMITTEE MADE MANY CHANGES IN CURRENCY BILL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Amendments that will revolutionize the theory upon which the Federal Reserve currency bill now pending was constructed, and which are obnoxious to President Wilson, were yesterday agreed to by the senate committee on banks and currency.

Following strong intimations from the White House that the time had come when the currency question should be considered in caucus and made a party measure, and severe criticism by the President of the manner in which the committee is proceeding, that committee tore the bill to pieces today and changed it in these very substantial particulars:

The capital stock of the regional reserve banks to be thrown open to the public for subscription, the banks to take up all that remains, if any, after sixty days' grace when subscription begins.

Public Wins Control

The public and not the banks to have control of the management of these regional banks. The federal reserve board to appoint five directors and the member bank to elect a minority representation of four directors.

Treasury notes, backed by the government, to be issued, and not national bank notes guaranteed by the government.

Treasury notes to be redeemed in gold only, and not gold "or lawful money," as provided in the house bill.

Flder and Confreres Resign--U. S. Postal Department Investigating Affairs of Company

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—The board of directors of the Los Angeles Investment Company, headed by Chas. A. Elder, resigned after asking the following men of Los Angeles to step in and by their financial aid and business experience to bring the corporation out of its difficulties: Stoddard Jess, vice-president of the First National Bank; J. E. Fishburn, president of the National Bank of California; D. A. Hamburger of Hamburger & Sons; Henry W. O'Melveny of the law firm of O'Melveny, Stevens & Milliken; W. H. Allen, Jr., president of the Title Insurance & Trust Company; Harry Chandler, assistant general manager of the Times, and R. A. Rowan, president of R. A. Rowan & Company.

These men have agreed to serve for two years on the board of directors and try to save the company and its thousands of stockholders from disaster.

The fact that an investigation into the affairs of the Los Angeles Investment Company by the postal authorities has been going on for some time was definitely stated for the first time yesterday by United States District Attorney Albert Schoonover and Post office Inspector C. S. Ranger.

"The investigation is in response to written demands made upon the post-office department at Washington, and charges that the company sent through the mails misleading statements," said Ranger. "Who the complaining persons were or how many there may have been, I would not be at liberty to state, did I know."

Chas. A. Elder, president of the Los Angeles Investment Company, declares the company is sound and says the books are open to investigation.

ANAHEIM STAYS WET BY MAJORITY OF 213

Heavy Vote Cast in Hard Fought Election--Tent of Drys Entered by Wet Celebrants

PRECINCT	WET	DRY	MAJORITY
FIRST	254	190	64 Wet
SECOND	180	119	62 Wet
THIRD	242	139	103 Wet
FOURTH	218	234	16 Dry
Totals	894	681	213 Wet

By a vote of 894 for saloons and 681 against, Anaheim yesterday voted to remain in the column of the wets. The majority in favor of staying wet was 213.

There was jubilation among the saloon forces last night when the count indicated that there was going to be a victory for them.

When the count was finished scores of wet supporters gathered along Broadway, forming in procession, and marched through the city streets.

During this time the dry leaders were holding a meeting in a big tent at Broadway and Lemon streets. The wets marched to the tent and in many ways made known the result of the election, finally breaking up the dry session.

The dries declare that the fight has only begun. It is their declared intention to go into court next Monday to fight out the registration cases. However, had every one of the 156 persons whose registrations were attacked voted and voted wet, the result of the election would have been the same. The wets had 213 majority. The dries assert that their next fight will be to get men of their opinion on the board of city trustees.

Never did Anaheim before see such a tug of war as that which took place in her borders yesterday.

Both wets and dries were up early and the polls opened at six o'clock sharp, with all the officers originally appointed present except three. In the first the wets elected one officer, while in the Third the dries landed two.

The dries were well organized. They had strong men for challengers, and some of them were ably assisted by women checkers. The wets did little challenging. But the dries were at it much of the day. On their challenge lists were the names of nearly all those whom they did not succeed in having ordered off the register by the Superior Court.

In the First, Third and Fourth precincts nearly all challenges were denied. But the dries stuck to it and made the parties swear in their votes. As they had an attorney in every precinct it is thought foundations were laid for several perjury cases, it is possible there will be an aftermath to the election. Leading dries, and their attorneys, still claim that nearly every one they cited to appear before the Superior Court were not entitled to vote at yesterday's election.

Both sides had plenty of autos and they kept busy all day, bringing in the voters.

Polls could not have been watched any closer than were the polls of Anaheim yesterday. Each side had an attorney at each polling place, and watchers were on hand to present challenges.

The vote was unusually heavy, 1575 votes being cast.

The capital stock of the regional bank is placed at 6 per cent of the combined capital and surplus of the banks of the regional district, one-third payable in cash, one-third in two months and the remaining third in three months. The house provided for a compulsory bank contribution to the capital stock of the regional equal to 10 per cent of its own capital.

Over at Tustin today there is much complaint over the manner in which workmen for the county are trimming trees along Main street, Tustin. Some of the property owners are angered over what they consider unnecessary mutilation of trees.

ARBITRATION MAY END CAR STRIKE

Miners Refuse Company's Terms But Propose Arbitration—Co. May Agree

INDIANAPOLIS GUARDED BY 2000 STATE MILITIA

Soldiers Chafe Under Inaction and Poor Housing—Women Appeal to Governor

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—The indications this afternoon were that the traction company would accept the striking employees proposition to submit their differences to immediate arbitration by the state public service board. The strikers made this proposition after rejecting suggestions by the company to return to work. It is believed a far worse situation will result if the company refuses arbitration, than already exists. The leaders of many unions are reported as considering a sympathetic strike unless the company arbitrates.

The militiamen, held in armories and in the outskirts of cities are thoroughly angered at being held under arms without activity. They are compelled to sleep in barns and on armory floors.

EMPLOYEES REFUSE THE OFFERS OF COMPANY

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—The striking street car men today rejected the traction company's offer of settlement. Their representatives told Governor Ralston, acting as mediator, that they would be surrendering their constitutional rights if they accepted the terms offered. Immediate trouble is feared as a result. Gov. Ralston has the troops arriving last night disposed about the city with orders not to appear on the streets until notified.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Indiana's entire National Guard, consisting of more than 2000 soldiers, was camped in different parts of Indianapolis last night ready for duty in connection with the strike of the employees of the Indianapolis Traction & Terminal Company. As the trains bringing the various detachments arrived they were halted at the suburbs. The troops were not sent into the town until a sufficient force had been assembled to provide the possibility of a clash with the strikers who gathered in the downtown streets on learning that the militia had been called out.

Nearly three hundred women, members of the Garment Workers' Union, rushed into the capitol today and crowded into the governor's office. They demanded that Governor Ralston force arbitration of the street car strike and call a special session of the state legislature. Many of the women were hysterical and Mrs. Edna Davis, president of the union, declared:

"We are willing to take up arms to win this strike."

Governor Ralston told the women he had no authority to force a situation. He said he was in sympathy with the union men, but could not allow a condition of lawlessness to exist and it was his sworn duty to protect life and property.

INSTITUTE IS IN DECEMBER

County Superintendent Mitchell
Has Selected Dates for Meeting

Circular Letter is Being Sent to Principals Concerning
Pensions

Orange County's Teachers' Institute is going to be held Dec. 15, 16 and 17, and on Dec. 18 and 19 teachers of this county are to join with the Southern teachers in an institute in Los Angeles.

County Superintendent of Schools Mitchell has set the date for the county institute, and today he began the preparation of the program, which he hopes to have in shape soon. Mitchell wants to get up a program that will be unusually instructive and helpful to the teachers.

Mitchell is today sending out to principals of the county a circular letter in regard to teachers' pensions. Orange County teachers have been exceedingly slow to accept the opportunities offered by the new pension law. Mitchell's letter says:

"I am sending you herewith the application blanks for the teachers of your school to qualify under the retirement act. See that every teacher in your school is given a chance to sign and make it clear that a teacher can not qualify after January 1, 1914. Tear the blank in two pieces. Send the original to the superintendent of public instruction and the duplicate to my office. Be careful that no mistakes are made as the proper handling of these blanks may mean a great deal to many teachers."

ENTHUSIASM IS RAMPANT

High School Here Believes its
Team Will Win Game
Tomorrow

(By Vern Smith.)
With song and yell practice every day the last two weeks, and enthusiasm at the highest pitch this year, the Santa Ana high school will go 300 strong to clash with Long Beach tomorrow. Nearly every day for the last two weeks the song and yell leaders have been working with all their might and main on new songs and yells. As a result Santa Ana will send over at least 300 rooters to the Long Beach game. At no time this season has the enthusiasm been at such a high pitch. This means that Santa Ana must win.

Team in Good Shape
Working out new plays, planning new formation, and battling with the scrubs, the Santa Ana eleven has been rounding itself into perfect shape. Every player is trained to the minute to meet Long Beach, one of Santa Ana's hardest enemies. Coach Ratcliffe has been putting his men through some of the hardest workouts this season, and with the assistance of Capt. Warren he has strengthened all of Santa Ana's weak places. Much time has been spent in receiving kick-offs and finding a good kick-off man. As for finding a good kicker, Joe Irvine has shown up a shade better than the rest. Coach Ratcliffe has found a fairly good place kicker in Burkett. He has been kicking good goals in practice and will do fairly good work in a game. Two weeks ago this was one of Santa Ana's weakest points. It is one reason Santa Ana did not win the Whittier game.

All the line men are faster and are playing an entirely different brand of football than they did two weeks

Old Soldier Conquers Eczema

After Hospital and Doctors' Treatments, Full Cure Resulted Good Work.

Get the Best of It.

Lectured by Dr. J. W. Rose, Eczema appeared on my back and hands. Doctors treated me in hospital and gave me alkali baths every day but did me no good. In 1912 it appeared on head, face and hands—burning and itching. I tried everything but got no relief and was getting worse.

Two months ago I got a bottle of Zemo; eczema has disappeared and my hands begin to look as new again. I tell you Zemo to be the greatest discovery of the age. More power to Zemo. John W. Persons, 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

You can free yourself of this burning, itching, sleep destroying horror—eczema—just as this grizzled veteran did. Uniquely for any skin eruptions, boils, dandruff and other skin troubles. Your druggist will sell you a 25c sealed bottle of Zemo and will guarantee it, or it will be sent direct on receipt of price by E. W. Taylor, Inc., 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

ago. Probably the reason for this is because they have a faster and better scrub eleven to buck up against. With the class Santa Ana is displaying in practice scrimmages, there is no reason why they should not walk away with tomorrow's game at Long Beach.

Scrubs as Curtain Raisers
As a curtain-raiser for the big game the Santa Ana scrubs will fight a terrible battle with the Long Beach scrubs. There has always been a great feeling of rivalry between the two scrub teams, and the chances are it will be quite some game. The way the Santa Ana seconds have been showing up the last few nights they ought to clean up the beach scrubs.

The following first eleven will go to Long Beach tomorrow: Warren, Eaton, Selph, Irvine, Hughes, Petz, L. Morrison, M. Morrison, Walters, Whitson, Timmons, Burkett, Anderson, Robinson, Holzgrafe, Helfert.

The game is to be called at 2:30. The following second eleven will go to Long Beach tomorrow: Menkes, Getty, Fabey, Shallenberger, Catland, Faul, Westgate, McBarney, Wallace, Ward, Covington, McClain, "Mike" Stuart. Game called at 1:30.

(By Staff Correspondent.)
ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Mrs. M. C. Cooper entertained the members of the sewing club yesterday afternoon at her home west of the river. The reception was in the nature of a farewell as Mrs. Cooper will shortly move to Orange.

The afternoon was spent with sewing and social conversation, passing very pleasantly. Delicious refreshments concluded the affair. Those present were: Mrs. Nathan Allen, Mrs. John Walton, Mrs. W. A. A brilliant reception was given last evening at the H. Wyneken home on East Chapman avenue in honor of their son, Alfred Wyneken, who is home after serving four years in the navy, and who will soon enter for another four years.

Games of all descriptions filled the evening in a pleasant manner. Dinner was served the guests at a late hour. The decorations were the remarkable feature of the affair. Patriotic colors covered the rooms and the dining tables. A flag was draped over the entrance to the living room, while the dining room was alive with the red, white and blue color scheme. U. S. shields covered the walls and red, white and blue streamers were hung from the chandeliers. A long flag drapery lined the stair rail and small flags were draped on the tables. As a centerpiece was a tiny white-sailed ship at anchor in a pool of water. Tiny red, white and blue baskets of almonds were favors at each plate, and the place cards were decorated with flags.

A large gathering of guests were present to welcome Mr. Wyneken, and the affair continued pleasantly until a late hour.

A meeting of young ladies was held at the M. Eltiste home last evening. Miss Minnie Becker acting as hostess. The purpose of the meeting was to organize a sewing circle, and regular meetings will now be held. Refreshments were served.

Miss Hazel Foust left for her home in Long Beach yesterday to recuperate after her recent illness. Her mother came up and returned with her.

Mrs. Stewart Flintham and son Bill, of Los Angeles, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Billingsley, in Villa Park. They will remain until Monday.

Mrs. L. E. Jones, who has been visiting relatives in Santa Monica since Saturday, returned home last evening.

John Hanson was in Los Angeles yesterday to witness the industrial parade.

Mrs. A. Cummings of Cheney, Kas., is visiting with Mrs. Louise Stolp on West La Vista avenue.

W. M. Brown has been in Los Angeles on business the greater part of the week.

Mrs. Otis Briggs returned from Los Angeles yesterday, where she has been visiting relatives for a few days.

The regular meeting of the American Woman's Republic, which was to have been held next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louise Stolp on West La Vista avenue, has been cancelled on account of the illness of Mrs. Stolp. The new meeting place has not been announced.

MOTORBIKE AND AUTOMOBILE BUMP

Anaheim Carpenters Met With Disaster at the Orange Plaza Today

A collision in the plaza at Orange this morning between an automobile and a motorcycle, resulted in the injury of W. D. English of Anaheim, who was riding the latter machine. The collision took place about 8 o'clock.

In passing, the two drivers became confused and the machine came together with a loud crash. Neither was traveling fast, or more serious damage might have been done.

The motorcycle was badly smashed and the auto received a broken lamp and radiator, the crank shaft being put out of commission.

English was thrown against the auto and rendered unconscious. He was cut about the face and remained unconscious until removed to Dr. Domann's office, where he was given attention. H. L. Wilkins was riding the tandem seat and was also slightly hurt. The auto was driven by August Stohman of the Santa Ana Canyon. He was unhurt.

A CHILD'S LAXATIVE IS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Made from Fruit—Can't Harm Tender Stomach, Liver and Bowels

If your little one's tongue is coated, it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!—Advertisement.

NERVOUS AND SICK HEADACHES. Torpid liver, constipated bowels and disordered stomach are the causes of these headaches. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills, you will be surprised how quickly you will get relief. They stimulate the different organs to do their work properly. No better regulator for liver and bowels. Take 25c and invest in a box today. At all druggists or by mail, H. E. Becken & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis—Advertisement.

THE SANTA ANA Y.M.C.A. HAS ARRANGED EXCELLENT COURSE OF ENTERTAINMENTS

The Y. M. C. A. entertainment course which has been arranged by the Santa Ana cabinet will begin December 12, with a musical evening by the Sierra Male Quartet and reader of Los Angeles, followed on December 31 by Byron's Famous Troubadours. On January 23 by the Occidental College Glee Club; on February 13 by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougier; on March 4 by Montville Flowers, and on April 3 by a home talent entertainment in charge of Clarence A. Gustlin, director of the Orange County Conservatory of Music, and Mr. Ernest Crozier Phillips.

The price of a season ticket is $1.50 and tickets are now on sale and can be obtained as follows: From Mr. Metzgar at the First National Bank,

Mr. Andre at the Orange County Savings and Trust Company, Mr. Hanson at the Farmers and Merchants' National Bank, Dr. Hervey at the California National Bank, Thacker's Book Store, Rowley Drug Company, Glenn Tidball at Bergman & Obarr's meat market. Reserved seat tickets will be on sale beginning Saturday, November 15, at 10 o'clock, at Rowley Drug Store. The same seat may be reserved for the entire course for 25, 50 or 75 cents extra for the entire course. Arrangements have been made for the use of the Grand Opera House for the entire course and it is hoped that the people of Santa Ana will support the young men in this endeavor to provide good, clean, wholesome entertainment for the community. By taking a course ticket, even with the most expensive reserved seat, costs only $2.25 for the six numbers, or 37 1/2 cents an evening.

Mr. W. A. Zimmerman is acting as chairman of the lecture committee, Glenn Tidball as treasurer, and R. J. Hamilton as secretary.

Mr. Montville Flowers, the fifth number of the course, comes very highly recommended as a public entertainer and lecturer, and in Santa Ana will give Ben Hur, giving a lecture on the book and acting out some of the best scenes. He is recommended very highly by all those who have heard him, and is to be on the lecture course at Orange for the third time, having given such complete satisfaction the previous two seasons.

The second number, Byron's famous Troubadours, is an evening of instrumental and vocal music in which seven musical artists give a varied evening's performance, using twenty different musical instruments, among these being a clarinet, trombone, trap drums, orchestra bells, harp mandolin, mandola, guitar, ukulele, cello, contra bass, and saxophones. Songs are given in English, French, German, Spanish and Hawaiian. They also play the Bryndolin, in which four persons play on one instrument. This was invented by one of the players and is used only by this company.

The Sierra Male Quartet sang last June at the high school commencement exercises and gave entire satisfaction.

Dr. Brougier has already lectured in Santa Ana a couple of times and is considered one of the best humorists lecturers on the Pacific coast.

Everyone will be pleased with the evening's entertainment given by the Occidental College Glee Club.

The last number will give the people of Santa Ana a chance to appreciate some of the best musical and dramatic ability of the community and be worth attending.

Consult Dr. Enochs, Sunset Phone 47.

TERRA FIRMA AND BLUE SKY

By an ancient partisan device of yelling "fad" and "freak legislation" the newspapers that wish to injure the present state administration have managed to stir up enough sentiment against the law for the investigation of companies selling stock to the public to hang it up under the referendum. A year hence it will be voted upon by the people and will carry, without a bit of doubt, by a large majority. Those who signed the petitions against it were some of them rank schemers, others honest but reactionary business men and the rest thoughtless people misled by a hue-and-cry. But it is interesting to consider how this law, if it had been allowed to go into operation, might have benefited the present condition of financial affairs in California, and especially in the southern section of the state.

Money is tight all over the United States and has been for over a year. The market for all securities is weak and their prices declining. This puts a damper on speculation and the buying of engraved paper. It naturally happens when this state of things has continued for a time, and when some liquidation and a good deal of loan readjustment is taking place, that there is a more searching inquiry into the exact value of this engraved paper, vast quantities of which have been scattered among the people through clever advertising work. We speak of Southern California particularly, not because financial conditions there are any different from those in other regions with respect to the supply and demand for money, but because a great many people in that part of the state have during the past two or three years put their surplus earnings into local land and building companies.

The rapid increase in population of Los Angeles and other southern cities and the extraordinary amount of building in progress have led to a great advance in the value of land, and fortunes have been made in this form of speculation. Naturally the general public has taken a hand as far as it is able, and the most workable plan to split ownership up into small fragments and distribute the possible gain of the increment is through stock companies. Easterners often express surprise and sometimes disapproval over the universal tendency of the people in the southern region to talk land values and land speculation. It would be difficult, however, to find any commodity safer and more wholesome for the investment of people's savings than land—under right conditions. When the public buys wheat or cotton, or copper, or railways, it does so with its eyes shut and the affair is largely a gamble. But land is something that can be seen and judged, and the man who has lived any length of time in a place is likely to have positive views on the trend of business and kindred topics which he is willing to back with his money.

During the last few years there has been a great increase in the number of these land and building stock companies, and many million dollars of their securities have been sold through advertising. Very few of these companies were fraudulent, for transactions of this character do not lend themselves to actual fraud. The great majority of them were not only honest but were sound and valuable as investments. But between honesty and fraud there lies in business a grey-tinted zone which we call the "dubious," and into that fell a number of these enterprises. Their investments, made on poor judgment, or with a chance for private rake-off, were bolstered up by over-valuation, and on such valuations dividends were declared which were in reality paid out of stock sales. Notes accepted by these companies on the sale of property were treated always as assets for their full face value, notwithstanding the fact that frequently they were unprotected by any form of equity, and that the signers were financially irresponsible, and that the property sold was valued at a high figure. Such a system might prosper in superlatively good times, but whenever sales began to slacken and installment purchases came to be abandoned, and values in consequence began to drop, disaster must follow. At the worst, however, unless there had been actual fraud, it would merely mean a falling off of dividends and some drop in stock value. If the assets consist of land and buildings in a city that is bound to grow, in the long run values are certain to recover and like enough make up for lost interest.

But the tendency of such a situation is to make the good suffer with the bad unless there is some form of distinction possible through a public inspection. That is precisely what is going on in Los Angeles at present, where there are scores of valuable enterprises that depend upon the public for capital to carry them forward and are held back by the general lack of confidence. If there were a blue sky law to clear out the bad and put a stamp of approval on the good, a much better condition would exist. However, it will come before long.—C. D. W. in California Outlook.

THE CONSERVATION OF THE WINTER RAIN-FALL

Speaking in Riverside recently, United States Forester Graves, head of the Federal Forestry Department, emphasized the importance of the work done by the government forestry service in conserving the water supply and winter rains on the forest reserves adjacent to the citrus districts in the southern part of the state. Mr. Graves stated that the government was spending $50,000,000 a year in the work of protection, administration, reforestation and construction of roads and trails in the government forest reserves; that these forestlands covered an area of 185,000,000 acres; that in each of the Angeles, Cleveland and Santa Barbara reservations $50,000 a year was being spent. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Graves further stated: "There is not much real timber on the mountain slopes of Southern California, but the preservation of the brush slopes is even more vital in water conservation than preservation of the real forests."

In introducing Mr. Graves, Francis Cattle, chairman of the reforestation committee of the Tri-County Water Conservation Association, pointed out that the association during the past two seasons of low rainfall, had spread over the debris at the mouth of the Santa Ana river at Mentone a total of 277,534 inches of water, equal to a flow of 800 inches daily for six months of each year, and at a cost of $2000.

The importance of the work of both the forestry department and of such work as has been done by the Tri-

County Association, cannot be over-estimated not only in conserving our present water supply but by increasing the available water for irrigation at the same time.

The work of the association on the amount of water available for use by the systems drawing from the Santa Ana river from the mountains to the sea has been very marked. The spreading of the winter rains upon the debris at the mouths of the many mountain streams and rivers—first proposed and carried out by W. E. Pedley of Riverside 14 years ago—has proved beyond doubt of incalculable benefit to the many irrigation districts of Southern California in replenishing the artesian belts, in addition to preventing the disastrous floods experienced in past years.

This work must go hand in hand with the construction of storage reservoirs, the protection of the mountain slopes from erosion and the maintenance of brush and undergrowth on the mountainside.

While the construction of reservoirs for impounding the winter rains remains as important a factor as heretofore in increasing the amount of water available for irrigation during the summer months, it has been proved that nature can be aided in replenishing many of our artesian belts upon which so many of our citrus districts depend for their irrigation water; thus not only maintaining the present supply, but adding thereto and so allowing of increase in the acreage capable of irrigation.

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Although there is a strict ban at Princeton University against the playing of summer baseball by members of the varsity team, and every influence is brought to bear to discourage men from entering the professional field, the Athletic Board of Control has taken a step toward developing some real baseball brains among collegians. The Athletic Board has ruled that hereafter the professional coach shall sit in the grandstand during the games and take no part in the active direction of plays. The "inside" stuff will be thus left to the Captain and his board of strategy. Perching the coach in the grandstand may mean the abolishing of professional tutoring eventually, but this step will not be taken immediately. The same rule applies to four-mile rowing races. Dr. J. Duncan Spaeth, the crew coach, is opposed to long races. The course at Princeton is under two miles. Princeton has hopes of having Yale on the regular string of rowing foes now that the ice has been broken by the race of October 25. It was pretty soft for the Tiger eight. The challenge came unexpectedly and caught Coach Spaeth with four green men in the center of the boat. He was hardly ready for the race, but went to it in the belief that it would lead to more races in the future. The result is history, and brought little consolation to followers of the Blue who have doubts as to the English rowing system. The Princeton eight was as fresh as a bunch of daisies when they pulled over the line, but the heavy English equipment had the best of Yale. They began splashing soon after the mile mark was passed. By the time the finish mark was reached the crew was all in and two of the men all but collapsed.

Why worry along with an education when you can be a caddy and possibly grow into a golf champion, should be an argument for English youngsters. Experts have figured that $12,500,000 is spent in England annually for caddies. The total expenditure of Mr. J. Bull for the game is placed at $30,000,000 a year. It is estimated that $6,250,000 is spent for golf balls and $625,000 for clubs. There are approximately 250,000 golf bugs hammering the pill in England.

With the big football games now about due, it will be only a short time until the sharps will come forth with their annual chirps as to the rules. They are welcome to their guess, but there has been freer scoring this season than during the old days. Yale and Navy were the only teams in the East to reach the first of November without being scored upon. The Blue was held to a 0 to 0 score twice up to that time—by Maine and by Washington and Jefferson. Points were registered against Harvard, Penn., Dartmouth, Army, Navy, Cornell, and Carlisle by the smaller colleges. In years gone by it was a high crime and misdemeanor to have a touchdown or goal from field slipped over by one of the secondary teams. Now, however, it has gotten to be almost a habit and no one worries.

The handling of the forward pass has greatly improved. It has been handled with more certainty and precision. In the recent games in the East, however, when the fields were soggy with mud and water, old style football was about all that could be used. No better example of just how much a good kicker means to a team could be found than the Dartmouth Princeton game. First, open play was impossible as the field was a mass of water and mud. Princeton could not get through the Dartmouth line or around her ends. When the kicking started, the Tigers were driven back. The ball was in Princeton's territory practically all of the time.

Little doubt is felt at the present time but that Harvard will carry off the Eastern honors. The play of the Crimson has been far above that shown by their rivals, and it also has been consistent. With such individual stars as Mahan and Brickley they have much the better of the argument. Yale was not able to put her full strength on the field in the early games owing to injuries, but figuring the dope, the Blue ranks several points below Harvard.

H. S. P.-T. ASSOCIATION

Boys' Glee Club Gave Numbers—Cafeteria and Length of Hours Discussed

The High School Parent-Teacher's Association met at the Polytechnic High School music room, No. 231, yesterday afternoon with a good attendance of parents and teachers present. Mrs. Winblich, president of the association, presiding. The Boys' Glee Club of the High School made its first appearance in public and sang two pleasing numbers, "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Lucky Jim." They were heartily enjoyed.

It having been recently voted by the City Federation that each Parent-Teacher's association bear a share of the expense of putting in a bath tub at the Spanish school, the High School voted to pay its share of the expense. It is requested that all the parents and teachers see that their names are enrolled and the dues of 25 cents paid that the association may have the dues to meet the demands.

The committee on program was Mrs. Shaw, Miss Norman and Mrs. Chapman. Three questions were given in for discussion. The first was whether or not the parents should encourage their boys and girls to get dinners at the cafeteria. This was led by Mrs. Catland. The second brought out were that the cafeteria was furnished for those who were too far from school or who could not go home for the noon meal, as many live a long distance from the new school building. It is for the accommodation of those who desire it and not from a financial point of view. Sometimes better meals will be served than at other times, as happens in the home, and very often criticism is hastily made. After the project has been given a thorough trial, criticism may be more justly given.

The second question was concerning the length of the school hours. This discussion was led by Mrs. Horace McPhee. Differences of opinion on the length of school hours arise with the condition of pupils and the course of study taken. Some parents think the hours required of the pupils this year are too confining and say pupils are not able to stand the long strain physically, while others are satisfied with the present conditions and do not wish any change in the hours. The latter view seems to meet the demand of a large majority. Prof. McMath made a very clear statement in regard to the length of hours required and stated that they would try and regulate the time for those who were not physically able to take regular work.

As the hour grew too late for the last question to be discussed it was left over for the next committee on program. The committee is Mr. Cranston, Mrs. Kendall and Miss Wyant. The committee on refreshments yesterday was Mr. W. G. Gould, assisted in serving by Miss Norma Wingood and Ramona Cleveland. During the pleasant social meeting the parents and teachers were better able to become acquainted.

Men's Brotherhood Banquet
The Men's Brotherhood of the First Congregational Church will have a banquet this evening at the Congregational dining room, the young women of the Amphion Circle serving the supper, which takes place at half past six.

Amphion Circle
The members of the Amphion Circle turned out in large numbers yesterday afternoon to attend the regular meeting held at the First Congregational church. The ladies had their needles and thimbles with them and employed themselves in sewing for the coming Christmas bazaar. As they worked they were entertained with a masterly review of "The Mission," Mrs. Nathan Beales giving the resume of Henry Van Dyke's book. So delighted were the listeners with the review that all determined to read the book at once.

To conclude the afternoon in a hospitable way, the committee in charge served nuts, raisins and candy.

Mrs. Rawlings of Tustin will address the Loyal Temperance Legion at the United Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Nov. 9. All Sunday school juniors and their teachers are most earnestly requested to be present. The county superintendent, Mrs. Beardsley, may be present. There will be songs and recitations from juniors.

News has been received here that Mrs. Frederick Stephens, well known in Santa Ana, having resided here many years, died on October 24, 1913, at Portwood Nursing Home, Southampton, England.

Mrs. Stephens' health failed her after a series of illnesses and accidents, and her husband took her to their old home in England in the hope of benefit to her general health. The many old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Stephens, who sorrowed over the loss of health suffered by Mrs. Stephens, will grieve over her death but will rejoice that she is released from long suffering.

CROWN CITY SAYS NO CHURCH RAFFLES BUT SOCIETY CARDS

PASADENA, Nov. 6.—In an official ruling handed to the Board of City Commissioners yesterday, the deputy city attorney defined the anti-gambling ordinance which goes into effect November 15 as largely resting upon the intent of the parties interested. Card parties, where a prize is offered by the hostess, who does not play herself, will not be construed as gambling, if the prize is not of sufficient value to cover all the money paid in by the members as dues.

Where the parties at the card table simply gather to play cards for an expensive prize, where the hostess plays and the intent of each of the party members at the party is nothing more nor less than to win the prize, regardless of the actual pleasure in playing, it will be construed as a violation of the ordinance.

Church raffles, where an admission fee is charged and the prizes offered are worth a major portion of the gate money, will be a violation of the law. Any game where the stake is contributed by the participants alone, and the successful contestant is to be the sole winner of the prize violates the ordinance. The ordinance also prohibits dice-shaking for cigars, candy or prizes. Turkey raffles are also barred.

NEW PACKING HOUSE GOING TO SHIP 300 CARS NEXT SEASON

The Villa Park Orchards Association has called for bids for a new $15,000 packing-house that it expects to have completed and ready for business by March 1. The association had a fine season this last year, and firmly established itself. The members are orange growers in the vicinity of Villa Park. The house will be erected at Villa Park station on the Tustin branch of the Southern Pacific.

New Realty Firm
Manzy & Adams, 505 North Main street, is the name of a new Santa Ana real estate firm.

E. R. Manzy of Tustin, for the past four years owner of property located at the corner of First street and Prospect avenue, purchased from Jas. S. Rice, is one of the firm. He was formerly in the wholesale shoe business in San Francisco, and president of the Manzy & Reid Shoe Co., which did a business of nearly three quarters of a million dollars. His health was shattered and caused his retirement to simple life. Orange county climate did what no doctors could do to restore him to complete health.

J. F. Adams is a new arrival from Minneapolis, where he was engaged in the real estate business in a large way. He came to Santa Ana on a visit to his parents, was charmed with the country, and decided to remain. He has had wide experience and sees no reason why his Eastern success should not be duplicated here.

The firm has a good location and a tastefully fitted up office.

FOREST NOTES

To secure a merit badge in forestry, boy scouts are required, among other things, to identify 25 kinds of trees.

One of the principal by-products of the national forests of Japan is furnished by mushrooms, which have yielded in one year a revenue of a million dollars.

Articles of clothing from wood fiber are being made in Europe. The material for a suit costs about 50 cents. Clothing made of this material, however, can not be washed.

One of the largest and most valuable timber trees of the country is the tulip tree, known to lumbermen as yellow poplar. It is related to the magnolias, but is the only tree of its kind in the world.

The largest tree in the United States is said to be the "Mother of the Forest," a giant redwood in the Calaveras big tree grove in California. It is supposed to contain 140,000 board feet of lumber. There are, however, many claimants for the honor of being the "largest tree" and the "oldest tree," and these claims, according to foresters cannot always be verified.

IS MARKETING HIS WALNUTS PARCEL POST

Fullerton Grower is Shipping Product in Ten-Pound Boxes

Shipment of products by parcel post is a matter of great interest in Orange County.

Walnuts, freshly poked and packed in patented boxes of ten-pound capacity, now can be had direct from the orchards by parcel post at producers' prices by the consumers resident in Southern California and the larger part of Nevada and Arizona. Entering growers of the district about Fullerton, among them Knute B. Norwing of the Rancho del Oro, are creating a big market for their nut product. They have had boxes designed for the carriage of the walnuts at the smallest amount of expense and have canvassed nearly all of the territory by mail to which their wares can be carried at reasonable expense by Uncle Sam.

In Los Angeles a box manufacturing firm has installed a special set of machinery for the purpose of manufacturing the patented boxes used in this new line of trade. The cases are made of corrugated paper of light weight, but capable of containing the ten pounds allotted to them satisfactorily.

The boxes eliminate the excess weight contained in a wooden box and are without the constitutional weaknesses so often exhibited by sackcloth bags. The bags are easily ripped open along their seams, permitting theft of the contents. According to the manufacturers of the boxes, any attempt to take nuts from the corrugated paper boxes can be easily detected by the consumer to whom a package of nuts is shipped.

From Arizona, El Rancho del Oro has received a large number of orders for walnuts. The fruit sells for $1.75 and $1.25 per ten-pound box, according to the quality desired, and the parcels post charge to Phoenix, Ariz., is only 68 cents.

SECOND TO U.S. GERMAN NATION

Fatherland Ranks Fourth in Per Capita Wealth of Population

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—Next to the United States, Germany is the wealthiest nation in the world in its aggregate of wealth. Germany's national wealth, according to Dr. Karl Hefferich, director of the Deutsche Bank, Germany's biggest financial institution, who has just made a report to the Kaiser, is between 75 billion and 78 billion. That of the United States, according to the last census, is 125 billion. England 65 billion and France 60 billions. Second in national wealth, Germany, however, ranks fourth in the per capita wealth of its population. If all Germany's wealth were equally distributed each man, woman and child would have about $1199. In France each would have $1125, where the per capita wealth is highest in the world. England and the United States dispute which has the greater per capita wealth. The English say they could distribute between $1250 and $1385 to each man, woman and child, while in the United States each would receive $1360.

The annual income of the German people is given by Hefferich as approximately $10,000,000,000. Approximately $2,000,000,000 is expended annually for public purposes. The German people, says Hefferich, save about one billion dollars annually, which together with the automatic increased value of property adds close to three billion dollars a year to the national wealth in aggregate. Hefferich shows the Kaiser that Germany's wealth has practically doubled since he ascended the throne.

Ours Is the Only Market in Santa Ana That Kills Its Own Meats

We will occupy our new branch market as soon as the room can be gone over and thoroughly renovated. In the meantime we can supply you with the best meats the market affords at our old location.

No Market Anywhere Can Under-sell Us on First Class Meats

the crop on the Santa Margarita ranch hauled and shipped. The estimated shipments from San Luis Rey which went to the Co-Operative Beet company at Santa Ana, were 6500 tons, the average price paid being six dollars. The beets at San Luis Rey are said to have shown a higher percentage of sweetness than those from the Santa Margarita but owing to the fact that the farmers were late in getting water onto the fields the beets were not so large as the ranch beets.

There were raised on the ranch about 24,000 tons of beets, most of which went to the Southern California Sugar Company factory at Santa Ana. The average to the acre on the Santa Margarita was eight tons while it fell below that in the valley. Owing to the higher sugar percentage of the valley beets, however, there was little difference in the returns. The value of the crop in this locality this year is somewhere about $170,000.

The estimated yield from the bean fields on the Santa Margarita is something over twelve thousand sacks, less than half a crop. This shortage was due of course to the scanty rainfall, there having been less than five inches of moisture in the bean country. Down the coast there may have been a couple of thousand sacks more this season. The beans brought a good price this year to those who had them and the estimated value of the yield in this locality is about $60,000 as compared with over twice that amount in a good season.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

The Aikani's Shower The Aikani Sunday school class held its business meeting last Tuesday night with Miss Alice Matthews. The new officers were elected. Miss J. H. Young was re-elected president; Miss Edith Rawlings, secretary; Miss Ruth Prunty, assistant secretary; Miss Alice Matthews, treasurer; Miss B. H. Sharpless, teacher. The business of the class disposed of, the girls greatly enjoyed turning the meeting into a miscellaneous shower for one of their number, Miss Edith Stearns. This was the second shower within the last week for Miss Stearns, who is quite a popular Tustin girl. Refreshments of chocolate, chicken sandwiches, olives and a delicious cake sandwich. Then followed the cutting of the fortune cake, which contained a ring, two thimbles, two dimes and two buttons. The cake was sliced and passed around and those who received thimbles were to be old maids, those the dimes were to be wealthy, and the buttons went to bachelors. Miss Carrie Matthews was the fortunate one to secure the ring and will be the next bride of her number.

Tustin "Y's" The next meeting of the Tustin "Y" will be held at the Presbyterian manse next Friday night.

Auto Race Tustin people were early risers last Monday morning and not many of them missed the exciting automobile race. On account of First and D streets being closed for improvement, some of the racers went out of their way by taking the wrong street, thus losing some time, but they were turned in the right direction as quickly as possible.

Literature Section The Tustin Literature Section held its meeting last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Martin on Seventeenth street. The section had invited E. M. Nealley of Santa Ana to talk on the subject of "Socialism." Mr. Nealley gave an exposition of Socialism and explained its progress. The afternoon was devoted to the study of that subject. A social hour and refreshments followed.

Coreopsis Club The Coreopsis Club will hold its meeting next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Collar.

Tustin Twelve The Tustin Twelve will hold its meeting next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. C. Stearns.

Parent-Teacher Association The meeting of the First Parent-Teacher Association will be held at the school house next Friday afternoon.

Berean Bible Class The Women's Berean Bible Class held its business meeting and Mission Study Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church.

The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. John Dryer and the business meeting opened with Mrs. Marshall in the chair. The class regrettably received the resignation of their secretary, Mrs. Pollard, whose health demands that she give up some of the good work she has been doing. Mrs. L. A. Cock was elected to fill her place as secretary. Some questions regarding the Home Department were discussed and decided upon. The business session over, the Mission Study class convened. Miss White, who is very well informed on the subject of Missions, gave an exposition of part of the lesson and made it very interesting. This being the last lesson in "China's New Day," a review is to be conducted by Miss White at the next meeting. There were fourteen ladies present and much interest was shown.

W. C. T. U. The Tustin W.C.T.U. will hold its meeting next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Blew.

C. E. Business Meeting The business meeting of the C. E. Society will be held at the home of the pastor, Mr. Blew, tonight. All are invited. The question of an intermediate society will be discussed. If you are interested come and show your interest. If not, come and get interested.

Mrs. Logan Surprised Miss Mabel Logan very successfully arranged a delightful surprise party for her mother last Tuesday afternoon. The ladies who were invited to participate met at the home of Mrs. E. J. Cranston. Mrs. Logan was quietly chatting with a neighbor who had come in with her fancy work, when the party came in the back door and came near filling the house before she knew what was in progress. She was very much surprised to receive so many friends at once. They all had their fancy work performed that put everybody in a most happy humor. The ladies all say they have not had so much fun in a long time. They gathered on the lawn to have a group picture taken, and, returning to the house, cards were handed out and a guessing contest followed. Mrs. Sharpless winning the prize—a box of candy. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon, Miss Logan being assisted by Miss Alice Phinney, Mrs. Earl Marshall of Myford, and Mrs. C. P. Marshall.

The invited guests, besides those mentioned, included Mesdames E. L. Higgins, J. W. McCullough, W. L. Leiby, C. E. Utt, S. E. Tingley, J. A. Phinney, E. W. Blew, E. J. Cranston, Fred Courier, G. W. Pollard, John Dryer, P. H. Ebel, Chas. Eells, B. H. Sharpless, Fred Probie, also Mrs. Jas. Alexander of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Hubert Hubbard of Los Angeles; Misses Bentley, Childs and White, and Master Chas. Logan of Myford.

Shower for Miss Stearns The home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cock presented a scene of merriment and good cheer last Friday afternoon upon the occasion of a shower for Miss Edith Stearns, a November bride-to-be. Halloween decorations were in keeping with the season. One after another about fifteen guests arrived, bringing with them tokens of their interest in her future house-keeping success. This was a kitchen shower and the presents were really beautiful in their fitness for helpfulness in household economy.

Miss Stearns was escorted into the center of the room and almost covered with gifts, and each one present gave a copy of her favorite recipe.

The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. D. Holford, Claud Norton, L. A. Cock, J. H. Stearns, Chas. Ariz, Tom Cock, H. E. Matthews, Chas. Rumsey, R. O. Stearns, F. C. Stearns and Jas. Triplett; Misses Damaris Deardorff, Mima Williams, Jessie Rumsey, Alice Matthews and Eva Stearns. Refreshments of chicken sandwiches, olives and cake were served and games were played, keeping up the good time until the short afternoon came to a close.

Mrs. Tingley Surprised Mrs. S. E. Tingley was given a genuine Halloween surprise party by her Sunday school class last Monday night. Misses Ruth Rawlings, Gertrude Lambert, Emma Thorman, Verda White, Grace Hatfield, Margaret Tingley and Ruby Schwartz met at the home of Miss Minnie Childs, dressed as ghostlike as possible, came and solemnly knocked at Mrs. Tingley's door. What was her surprise to have the whole bunch of young girlhood burst in upon her. They proceeded at once to have a good time, playing games, serving the refreshments they brought with them. The teacher and the class had a very happy time together.

Real Estate Transfer Five acres of oranges and lemons belonging to Geo. S. Carroll, bookkeeper at the Irvine ranch, was sold this week through the Tustin Realty Co. to J. E. Kellogg of Santa Ana. Mr. Kellogg bought it as an investment.

Mrs. Hubert Hubbard is visiting her brother, E. L. Higgins and family. Part of her visit is also with Mrs. C. E. Utt.

A Thrilling Tale of Adventure in the Canadian Northwest

Jack Chanty

By

HULBERT FOOTNER

Author of "Two on the Trail," Etc.

THE STORY opens with Jack Chanty floating idly into camp perched upon his raft singing to the accompaniment of his banjo, little dreaming that while he had hidden himself from the world—the world, or at least an important part of it, was coming to him. For on that day Garrod and Linda found his retreat. And Jack Chanty was the last man Garrod ever wanted to see again.

Mr. Footner knows and loves the wilds and he has here told a very dramatic story of the adventures of Garrod's party guided by Jack Chanty, of the mystery at home that Garrod tries so hard to hide and of the jealousy of Linda and the trader's daughter.
